GETTING HER NUMBER... Lovely Sue Carter here registers the motor number of her car with Don St. Louis, general sales manager of Whittlesey Motors, DeSoto-Plymouth dealer, 1600 Cabrillo, for the $150,000 lucky motor number sweepstake contest sponsored by Plymouth on a nation-wide basis. Local residents may come to the local agency to register the motor number of their car (any make). No other obligations.—Press Photo

Mayor Calls For Campaign Volunteers

"It is absolutely imperative that we be prepared to over-subscribe our goal this year." Such was the declaration of Chairman Albert Isen this week, as he urged citizens to enlist in any one of the divisions forming Torrance's 1956 Red Cross campaign organization, which is slated to kick off soliciting activities the first part of next month. Emphasizing that the "tremendous rehabilitation program being undertaken right now by Red Cross" in flood stricken parts of California poses an immediate responsibility on campaign teams this year, Isen indicated that the only obstacle to complete success would be an inadequate volunteer organiza-

Navy Forming L.A. Company

Applicants for the U. S. Navy will have the opportunity of being members of an all Los Angeles county company forming during the month of February, Commander Charles E. Dunston, Officer in Charge of Navy Recruiting, 759 South Figueroa st., announced today.

To assist in bringing the all Los Angeles county company to the attention of the public, Mayor Albert Isen, has proclaimed the month of February as "Go Navy Month" within the City of Torrance.

Chief Morrison, local Navy Recruiter urges young men, 17 to 31, who want to become a member of this special company to visit him at Room 5, 1526 Cravens street Torrance, California or call FAirfax 8-3209 before February 20. Special assessment proceedings leading to improvements on 172nd street and others in the Lawndale area were instituted this week by the county board of supervisors, according to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn. As petitioned for, the project will consist of the construction of curbs, gutters, walks and pavement on 171st, 172nd, and 173rd between Inglewood avenue and Hawthorne boulevard, and on Firmona and Grevillea between 171st and Redondo Beach boulevard, Supervisor Hahn said.
